No Abandonment Of B And M Tracks Seen In Near Future

Neutral Observer

An old but small landmark will be removed from Arlington Center in the not-so-distant future. The so-called "gate-tender's" shack at the intersection of the recently closed section of Mystic st., and Mass. ave., in the Center will go down anytime after the traffic signals are put into operation at the Mystic st. relocation. Most likely the shack at the Boston and Maine track on Water st. will also go down.

We've inquired around town and no one seems quite sure just how old the Mystic st. shack might be. Many say it's been there as long as can be remembered. Anyone remember that far back.

One of the plans for the future as presented in a projected schedule of work in the relocated Mystic St. area included the erection of an entrance sign to the Russell Common parking area.

The more publicity this area gets the better for the Town. An entrance sign at the junction of the old portion of Mystic st. and Mass. ave. is essential and other signs placed in appropriate places along Mass. ave. and on streets leading into the Center area would certainly help.

In the first place such signs would steer potential shoppers coming into the Center from outlying areas and from the outer fringes of the community to a centrally located parking area

Facelifting of the Future

Plans for future work in Arlington Center were presented to the Board of Selectmen by Town Manager Edward C. Monahan at the Selectmen's Meeting held Monday night.

A complete run-down of these plans is printed here for the convenience and information of local residents.

Remove island (old location for traffic signal at head of Old Mystic Street. (Note - Done January 13, 1961)

Erect sign "Entrance to Municipal Parking Area" right hand side of Right Turn Lane from Massachusetts Avenue into Mystic Street, but on left hand side of actual one-way roadway twenty feet wide into Old Mystic Street.

Change and extend curb lines for proper entrance into roadway to Parking Area at Mass. Avenue entrance to such roadway. Mark approximately twenty (20) Parking Stalls (5¢ for half hour for shoppers in a hurry) easterly side of Old Mystic Street in front of stores, extending from Massachusetts Avenue to Entrance to present metered parking area. Acquire and install meters.

Remove curbing on westerly side of Old Mystic Street, re-grade gutter to grade of existing sidewalk, and then blacktop strip four (4) feet on gutter plus approximately fifteen (15) feet more toward slope or banking.

Mark approximately twenty-six (26) Parking Stalls (5¢ for half hour for shoppers in a hurry) westerly side of Old Mystic Street as reconstructed under item 5 from Massachusetts Avenue to entrance to Winslow Street. Acquire and install meters.

Starting in April, or sooner at Tree Warden Dolan's discretion, and progressing as rapidly as good planting practices permit, with work being done by the Tree Department.

Slope along westerly side of Relocated Mystic Street, adjacent to Old Parking Lot, and on Town Own Land, at head of new Mystic Street, on same side of new Mystic Street. Large triangle, easterly side of new Mystic Street and northerly side of Massachusetts Avenue, including area adjacent to Right Turn Lane from Massachusetts Avenue into new Mystic Street.

Slope on easterly side of new Mystic Street from Right Turn Lane at Massachusetts Avenue to Winslow Street. Large triangle at intersection of Mystic Street and Chestnut Street.

Planting of trees along both sides of Relocated Mystic Street.

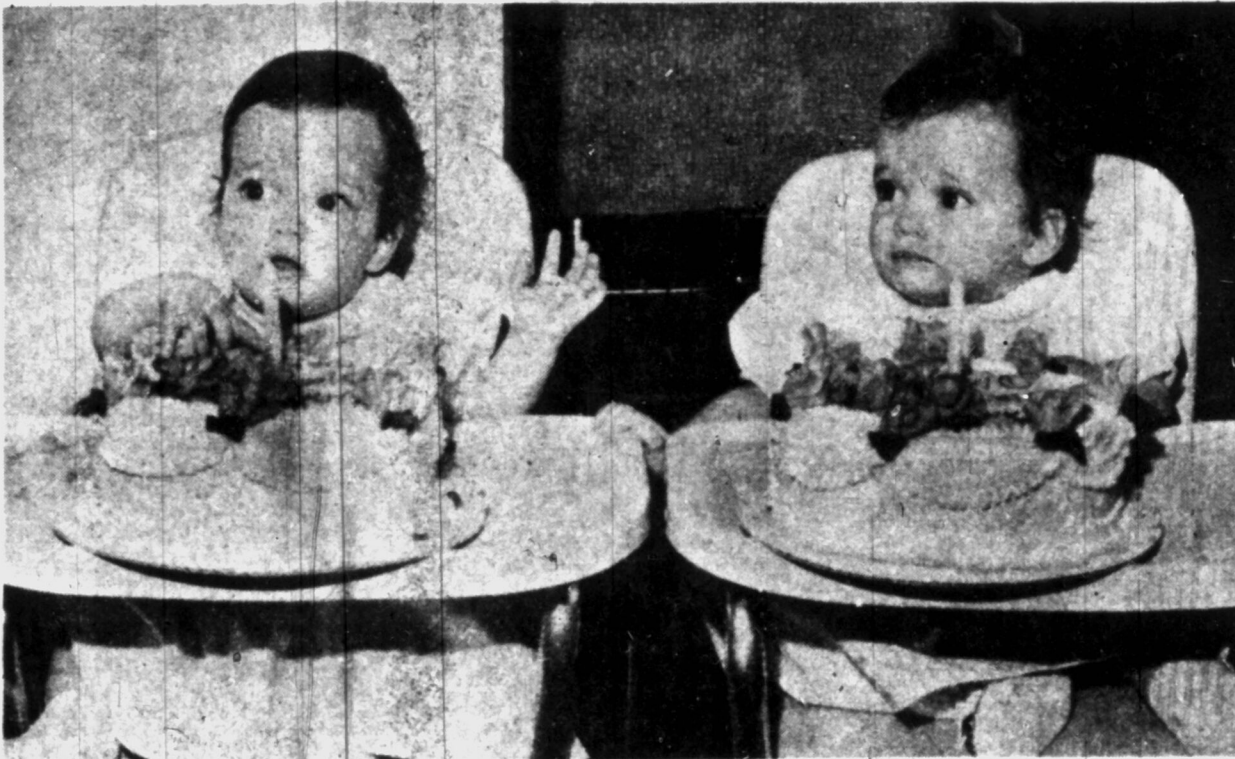

Remove curb, old Mystic Street last side from entrance to present parking area to Chestnut Street.

Area from Winslow Street to Chestnut Street to be graded, new curb on Winslow Street at old Mystic Street, entire area then blacktopped from Center of old Mystic Street to side of new Mystic Street.

Parking Curb presently "pegged" in place in lieu of present metered parking area to be removed and relocated in new areas (2) between Winslow Street and Chestnut Street, westerly of present metered parking lot.

Been A Long Year, Hasn't It?

First twins born at Symmes' hospital in 1960 were Debra and Diane Egan, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William Egan, 29 Fremont st., Arlington. Above they are shown celebrating their first birthday party last Sunday. We're not sure which twin is which, but the one on the left seems to be enjoying it all, while the one on the right is a bit skeptical about the entire thing. The twins were born January 18, 1960. Town Awaits Results Of Bus Tests At Harvard

REP. BUCKLEY

In a statement to the Arlington News this week, Representative John P. Buckley said:

"The Metropolitan Transit Authority operated Diesel buses through the Harvard Square Subway for the purpose of conducting various tests designed to establish the intensity of Diesel fumes in the area.

In addition to public health experts representing the Metropolitan Transit Authority and various officials of the Authority, there were also present experts from the United States Public Health and Massachusetts Public Health Departments and representatives of the Department of Public Utilities.

"Buckley said the outcome of these tests is of vital importance to the residents of Arlington. If they establish that buses can be operated safely through the subway, then it is understood that the M.T.A. will apply to the Department of Public Utilities for the necessary approval of this operation. If that is granted, then the Arlington buses will be re-routed from the surface at Harvard Square to the subway, where people will be protected from the elements, to which they are now exposed on the street.

"Buckley stated this change should also speed up the schedule because the buses will not be involved in the heavy traffic of Harvard Square and, by the same token, it should aid in relieving some of the traffic con-

Common Meter Regulations

To Be Enforced

Beginning February 1, 1961 the parking meter regulations at Russell Common will be strictly enforced according to an announcement by Town Manager Edward C. Monahan.

Because of the reduced public parking at the Old Parking Lot on Winslow Street during the past few months caused by the construction of Mystic Street, violators of parking meters at the Russell Common Municipal Lot have been given warnings only.

Now that the construction of the Mystic Street roadway has been completed, the taxpayers of the Town must begin to receive some revenue from the Russell Common Parking Meters in view of the tremendous town capital outlays that made possible this great improvement in Arlington Center. As times goes on, there will continue to be high maintenance and operating costs which the Town must assume in the new parking area, which will greatly enhance the convenience of "Absolutely no plans are a-foot for abandonment of the Boston and Maine Railroad tracks through Arlington, 'this reporter was told by a B. and M. spokesman in a telephone conversation last week.

As far back as four years ago, rumors were quite prevalent that the tracks were eventually to be abandoned, and used as an MTA roadbed, or torn up completely.

Later, when passenger service to Arlington was curtailed, the rumor stories increased.

However, these died out with the announcement that all passenger service to Arlington was to be eliminated, and that passenger service was to be limited to the Lexington and the Bedford area.

At that time it was explained by Railroad officials that two trains a day would pass through Arlington, one in the morning and a return train at night, to and from Boston.

Meanwhile, it was also noted that the line would still be used to carry freight westward from Boston to the Lexington and Bedford, a growing manufacturing area.

The Boston and Maine spokesman queried by this paper stated that there is no increase in the amount of freight being hauled over the line which passes through Arlington, but that the line is a vital line for freight hauling to the west of Boston.

14 In Selectmen's Race

Four more Arlington residents took out papers in the contest for Selectman during the last few days, thus bringing the total of potential candidates seeking election to fourteen.

At the same time, Francis J. Brickley, 118 Franklin St., took out papers seeking the Housing Authority post. Added to the list of nine men and one woman who had taken out papers previously were Daniel A. Purcell, 90 Stowcroft rd.; Francis J. O'Connell, 60 River st.; Ernest O. Scott, 372 Appleton st.; and William F. McCarthy, 100 Harlow st.

Candidates have until the end of the month to file papers, while the day for withdrawal is Feb. 7.

M.T.A. Public Relations Blasted By Selectman

Selectman Joseph P. Greeley questioned the public relations policies of the M.T.A. at the Board meeting held Monday night.

Greeley reminded fellow members of the Board that no official notice was ever sent to the Board relative to the resumption of rush-hour service on the Broadway Clarendon Hill line.

Not so angry was Mr. Greeley when he read a letter from the M.T.A. to an Arlington resident which explained that buses were running every 20 minutes Monday through Friday from 6:30 to 8:45 a.m. and from 4:05 to 6:10 p.m. as of Dec. 12, 1960.

Word of Regret

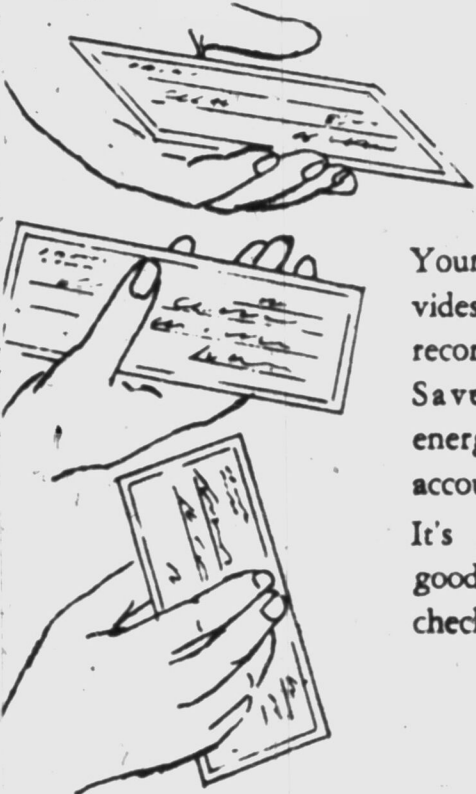

Town Manager Edward C. Monahan explained to the News this week that he was sorry that many residents found their driveways continually "plowed in" following Monday's storm.

The Manager added however that the widening of the plowed area was necessary to insure enough storage space for snow in future winter storms.

Postpone Action On Parking Area

Both the overall plan for developing a roadway and parking lot in the Railroad ave. area and the proposal for merely extending Railroad ave. to Water st. have been postponed for the time being as the result of action taken by the Board of Selectmen Monday night.

The Board decided at the session this week to abandon plans to take any action in time for insertion in the 1961 Warrant.

However, it is expected that representatives of other Town groups will meet with the Board for further discussion of the matter.

The Warrant closes officially Monday at 7:15, but the Board has allowed for space in the Warrant in case some definite decision might be reached and those present decide to insert an article at the Monday meeting.

Some members of the Board feel at this point it would be advisable to wait until the entire job in the area could be completed properly before taken definite action.

Selectman Chairman Daniel Buckley explained to the members of the Board that allow the Harvard Trust Co. would not be to give the

Leafs Edge Bruins Lead

Maple Leafs 4 - Bruins 3
Fred Dolan and Ed Ronan, the classy forwards of the Leafs, teamed beautifully to edge the Bruins 4-3. The victory put the Leafs in first place. Dennis O'Sullivan was a menace to the Bruins with his great defensive play. He also blasted home a 25 footer.

Bob Webb kept the Bruins in contention with two goals and an assist. Mark Davison also netted one for the Bruins. Norby Unger picked up an assist.

Maroons 2 - Rockets 1
Dave Gorecki, steady wing of the Maroons, led them to their second straight win with a fine tally late in the game. Dan Grannan scored the first goal for the Maroons assisted by Dick Butler. Butler and Fred Holway earned assists on Gorecki's score. Roger Kelley scored the lone Rocket tally on a smart pass from Peter Morse.

Canadiens 3 - Black Hawks 0
Johnny Deveau, the league's leading goal getter, banged home two more to lead the Canadiens to a 3-0 shutout over the Hawks. Ken Donovan started things rolling for the Canadiens with a 12' ft. blazer that caught the strings. Gordie Howell picked up an assist on Deveau's second goal.

Red Wings 2 - Rangers 1
The Wings hustled their way to their first victory by tipping the Rangers 2-1.

Little Bob Hevern put the Wings in the lead when he stole the puck at mid-ice and beat the Ranger net minder with an accurate shot from up close. Mark Murphy added an insurance tally assisted by Dave Portesi. Bob Preston got his first goal of the year late in the game.

Changing Of The Guard In Arlington

This community has been very fortunate in the past to have such a fine group of capable persons--men and women--serving on its many boards.

These groups are called on to work many long hours, all for the best interests of the community.

Unfortunately for the Town, many times the most-qualified personnel are forced to give up these positions because of personal commitments.

Such was the case with Frank Hughes, 166 Franklin st., Arlington, a local businessman who for some six years has served the Town very capably as a member of the Board of Park Commissioners.

For your years of work as a member of this Board, Frank, the Town certainly wishes to thank you.

The man who will succeed Mr. Hughes is also a man who is expected to give his best as a Park Commissioner.

John J. Walsh, 9 Cheviot rd., has a fine record over a long period of time. He has worked with youngsters for a number of years, and at the present time is the proprietor of a summer camp in Maine.

This graduate of Arlington High school has served as an athletic director and coach since his discharge as an Air Force Captain in 1945.

He has been a very popular figure in the Town of Melrose for a number of years where he has served in the capacity of baseball, football and track coach.

To you, Mr. Walsh a hearty welcome--and to you Mr. Hughes a fond farewell.

Example Of Americanism

Is the South through its "time-worn" tradition causing the United States to lose valuable ground in the Cold War?

The Arkansas school crisis two years ago, the New Orleans school problems this year and now finally, the most earth-shaking of all--the University of Georgia situation--could not have done anything but hurt this country in its dealings with South America, Africa, and Far East countries.

How can the countries mentioned above have faith in the United States and align themselves with free-world thinking if the very same type people making up the largest segment of their population are not allowed equal rights in the United States?

If the action taken by the students at the University of Georgia had been taken by uneducated groups, unfamiliar with local and world situations, who blindly followed the tradition of the southland, the situation might have been understandable to a certain extent. However, the situation is inexcusable, since the action was taken by the very residents of this country who are expected to be our leaders in the future--the college students.

In addition, from all reports this writer has been able to gather, the group involved also included many out of college persons who had been attending a basketball game between the University of Georgia and arch-rival Georgia Tech.

This group of persons, numbering in the hundreds, raced like so many small uncivilized children to the women's dormitory and stoned the building because inside was a girl whose skin was of a different color than theirs.

Police were there and eventually were able to control the mob action, but as a result the girl student and a second negro student who had entered the college that day were asked to leave.

Might had won out over right.

Superior numbers of selected American college students, the so-called "cream of the crop" of the American citizenry, acting like the savages who supposedly live in the so-called undeveloped regions of the world let vent their feelings against a girl who most of them never had seen before in their lives.

Why?

We can be so sure that such an action will be blown up way out of proportion by the Communist publicists.

In the past, much of the propaganda emanating from the "Red" bloc could be denied by us and many of those throughout the world who respect this country could shrug it off with the knowledge that it is so much "Red propaganda."

However, what are we to say of the "Georgia Incident"?

We cannot deny it? How can we defend it?

We are violating the very rules of Democratic living which we are trying so hard to bring forth to countries all over the world.

Even though the situation is ever solved to the point where the United States if questioned could explain why the "Georgia Incident," the damage has been done, the seed of doubt has already been sown.

Certainly, we should hang our heads in shame over this "Example of Americanism."

The Inside Story

Happy to see that we have been given a title, "The Inside Story". Well that is precisely what we will attempt to do. Give you the background and the facts and let you make the decision. There are others who think that the voter does not have the intelligence to separate the wheat from the chaff and attempt to sway him by high pressure publicity and political predictions.

Last week we mentioned that this column would stress the Assessor's and Housing Authority race plus newly announced candidates, so here goes.

Bill Burke, a close associate of Bob Porteus, candidate for selectman, could meet with defeat again as he did last fall in his bid for representative in the Republican primary. He came in fifth in a five man fight.

"Wily Willie" Houser, the incumbent has too much experience in political wars to even be threatened by an unknown. This contest can be dismissed that quickly.

Now to the Housing Authority. This board consists of 5 men, 4 elected for 5 year terms and 1 appointed by the Governor. Myron Chace, the incumbent, is the one to beat. Myron, one of the original five on the Housing Board, seems to be happy with his position even though this important board has changed from complete domination by the Republicans to a 4 to 1 majority of Democrats.

Can't understand why Chris Cammarata is running, when after working so hard for Gov. Volpe this past November he could, probably have the Governor's appointment for the asking when John Kedian's term expires. Chris, another unsuccessful candidate in the Republican primary could cut his political life short if he suffers a resounding defeat in this contest, which could happen.

American Legion Post Commander Joe Daley, who is presently employed by the Legion as a service officer to the Veterans Administration is certainly well qualified for the Veterans Housing office. Daley is one of the most popular legion commanders and Post 39 is one of the largest in the State. If the "comrades" ever decide to push Joe, then he could go all the way.

Finally we come to the new candidates for town office. Miss Keefe, candidate for selectman, is being built up by another column as an Ann Mahan. There is hardly any comparison as Ann had served as Town Clerk and previously as Assistant for several years. The 22 year old Miss Keefe is a graduate nurse with no experience to help solve municipal problems.

Another new entry on the school committee scene is Brian Wilkin, a member of the U.S.A.F., stationed at Westover Field. He sure is flying way out when he jumps into this dog fight. Mr. curiosity has been aroused, I wonder if Mr. Wilkin knows of his candidacy.

The Republican Town Committee met last Tuesday night supposedly to discuss this nonpartisan election. The Dems. had their meeting and added 30-40 new associates, many who served on the Old Committee. They appear to be banding together in order to right the past three outcomes. That was the writers feelings up until Monday. Since then "The Old Democrats" ("Led" O'Connell, local taxi owner, and Danny Purcell, twice defeated candidate for Assessor, have taken out papers for selectman. It looks to us like the fine hand of Bob Porteus since he is the only one to benefit by their running.

Next week we will swing back to the selectman's race when the air might be a lot clearer.

That's the Inside Story of those who seek the glory.

Mystic st. construction and reconstruction has proved to be "hard luck" for the Town. No cost to the Town for the resurfacing because of contractual commitments.

Hannah Hopscotch Club

The Hannah Hopscotch Club, a 4-H clothing group led by Mrs. Madeline McCauley, 86 Marathon Street, has enthusiastically started its second year in 4-H work. The members of the group are Manja Krieks, Elaine Koulis, Maria Karagianis, Madeline McCauley, Gloria Mattioli, Jean Primerano, MaryAnn Primerano and Beth Karagianis.

The girls did a wonderful job in their first year of club work. They made scarves and skirts for themselves, and at Christmas time they presented aprons and luncheon sets to their mothers. In April of last year, they were presented a Blue Ribbon for an excellent window display, which they entitled "Learn by Doing." The display consisted of eight twelve-inch dolls performing such activities as selecting a pattern, measuring a hem and operating a sewing machine.

Their last project of the year was a visit to the Somerville Sewing Machine Company, where they learned about the proper use and care of the sewing machine and its attachments. The Club started off this year quite enthusiastically by selling 4-H Cranberry Syrup. The proceeds of this sale will be used to treat the members of a fashion show. This year, most of the members have made a vest and plan to make a skirt and blouse to complete their outfit.

The opportunities for the children of Arlington in 4-H Club work are numerous. To girls between the ages of 9 and 21, 4-H offers such projects as clothing, foods, knitting, child care, home improvement and crafts. Some of the projects that are popular with the boys are woodworking, photography, rifle, electric, home grounds improvement, entomology and automotive.

The opportunities for you as an interested parent and good citizen are also numerous. The Town of Arlington needs 4-H Club leaders and Town Committee members. The 4-H leader chooses the specialized project which he wishes to teach and is provided with free project materials and leader training through the Middlesex County Extension Service in Concord. If you are interested in 4-H Club work in any way, please contact Miss Nancy McAuliffe by calling Volunteer 2-2380.

Donations to the 'New March of Dimes' Will Help Prevent Crippling Diseases

Millions of families throughout the United States this month have received March of Dimes "mailers."

If the millions on the receiving end of this gigantic mail operation coast-to-coast and in Hawaii and Alaska have not already done so, now is the time to return the familiar envelope with a donation to the county March of Dimes chapter. Local leaders urged this week. The world's largest voluntary health organization is seeking to prevent crippling diseases, with its sights set at birth defects and arthritis and at continued work in polio.

These mailers, which reproduce the campaign theme, "Prevent Crippling Diseases--Please Say Yes to the New March of Dimes," were addressed in great part by selfless volunteers who, by combing through telephone and other directories, were able to "spot" just about every family in their county. Addresses of new homes, not included in telephone books, were obtained by these volunteers from real estate boards, tax lists, from other official records, and from chambers of commerce.

Hopefully, each of the 44 million families in the United States will have an opportunity to help prevent crippling diseases by contributing to the March of Dimes between now and Jan. 31.

The blue mailer contains an envelope with a pocket for a March of Dimes contribution by check or cash and with space for the donor's name and address. A brief message addressed to "Dear Neighbor" explains the expanded program of The National Foundation, and elsewhere on the mailer a few health figures are given--for example, that birth defects cripple one out of every 16 babies in the United States; that arthritis and rheumatism afflict 11 million Americans; and that polio can still strike down any one of more than 85 million unvaccinated persons in the country.

"Mailers, mailers everywhere!" says Linda Breesie, of Columbus, Ohio, 1961 March of Dimes National Poster Child, as she "models" one of the contribution envelopes. Mailers are to be returned this month to local chapters of The National Foundation to support expanded health program in birth defects and arthritis, and continued work in polio. Linda is recovering from birth defects of an open spine and excess fluid on the brain.

that they "hope our mailer message brings speedy replies in the form of cash, money orders and checks because research and in the training of health workers."

One candidate for Selectmen was not happy with reports that he was not a candidate for the position. James P. McGuinness, Sr., 210 Mass. ave., has asked this paper to correct a statement made in another local publication last week.

According to Mr. McGuinness, he's in the contest for keeps and has no intentions of not running. His papers were certified a long time ago. For those who don't know, politics runs in the McGuinness family. Peter McGuinness, his father, was a public employee for almost three decades in New York City. He was a former Public Works Commissioner in that city and also wrote for the Brooklyn Eagle.

The Great Discovery of the Age shoppers, business men and their employees by permitting them to drive their cars to within a few steps of their destination.

Therefore, those who are privileged to use this great public improvement, are requested to comply with the parking meter rules and regulations at the Russell Common Parking Area beginning Wednesday, February 1, 1961, when the requirements will be fully enforced.

I am reasonably confident that those who utilize this public facility in Arlington Center will in all fairness and justice to their fellow townspeople, recognize their responsibility in this respect. The vast majority of the taxpayers of Arlington whose taxes paid for this very costly public facility, but who only indirectly benefit from this area, will certainly appreciate the enthusiastic cooperation of their fellow citizens and others who use this public facility, and those who are directly benefited.

Many, many, many years hence, the parking meter receipts may reimburse the town's taxpayers for the perfectly tremendous outlay of funds to acquire, construct, and maintain the Russell Common Parking Area, but only if those who take advantage of this very convenient parking area comply with the parking meter rules and regulations; in this respect the cooperation of all persons using the parking lot is sincerely requested.

Take Three Girls

Martha MacFarlane watches as Ricky Lloyd disguised as a girl says "How Do I Look?" at "Take Three Girls" presentation at Trinity Baptist Church last week.

Place Time Capsule

A time capsule containing typical and significant documents will be placed in the wall of the new Park Avenue Congregational church in a special ceremony at 4 p.m. Jan. 22. The service, similar to a cornerstone laying, will be held in the partially finished building, which was designed by Pietro Belluschi and Carl Koch Associates and is being constructed by Hans Tobiasson and Sons of Arlington.

Guest speaker for the occasion will be the Rev. Dr. Albert J. Penner, president and minister of the Massachusetts Conference of Congregational Christian churches. His topic is The Face of Congregationalism. Junior and senior choirs will participate in the service, together with the pastor, the Rev. Wilbur D. Canaday, Jr., the assistant minister, the Rev. Tjaard G. Hommes, and the building committee chairman, Charles W. Blackmon. Others taking part will be the architects, Pietro Belluschi and Fritz Day, Ernest G. Norring, Jr., is in charge of arrangements.

Among the articles to be placed in the time capsule are a copy of the Church History, slides of the old building of 1885, and a book signed by church members and attendants.

Candidate

I would like to take this opportunity to announce my candidacy for one of the three positions on the school committee to be filled in our Town Election on March 6.

At a crucial time, such as exists presently on the international scene, the school systems throughout the country can have nothing short of qualified leaders. Our schools are going to develop the future leaders, scientists, engineers, nurses, doctors, and skilled workers. We must therefore dedicate ourselves to the best possible training and instruction of tomorrow's citizens in accordance with the latest accepted standards of education. With this thought in mind I ask you to consider my qualifications.

I was graduated from Boston University and State Teachers College at which time the Massachusetts Department of Education certified me to teach on both the elementary and secondary level. Before entering the U. S. Army, I served as an elementary school teacher. Since discharge from the Army, I have been employed as a teacher of Mathematics and Science on the secondary level in the Woburn School System. This experience will enable me, if elected to the school committee, to serve with a better understanding of the problems that arise within a school system.

I received a fellowship from the National Science Foundation for graduate study at Temple University in Philadelphia in the summer of 1959. Presently I am studying for my Masters Degree at Northeastern University in the field of pupil guidance, an area so vital for the proper development of the youth within a school and a community.

With this brief statement of my background, I earnestly ask you to consider me for the purpose of better serving the interests of the school children of Arlington.

Very truly yours,
Edward G. McCann

Monahan, Buckley At Odds Over All-Day Parking

Selectmen Buckley and Town Manager Monahan were at odds this week over the question of free all-day parking for local businessmen. The dispute arose at Monday night's Selectmen's meeting when estimated costs improving the old parking lot near Winslow st. were discussed. A rough estimate of $17,070 was given by the town engineer as the cost of the 65-car lot, which would be set up for 25¢ all-day parking.

Buckley, who admitted that he was an "all-day parker" himself, pointed out that this kind of municipal parking was free in Lexington. He said he didn't believe the primary purpose of the lot was to make money and added that he felt the purpose of the all-day lot was to get local business and office workers out of other short-term parking areas and to get them off the smaller streets.

"I don't think the Town has to subsidize free parking for businessmen and their employees," said the Town Manager. "I don't see why the Town has to put in the lot and take care of it and get no return on it. It is no injustice to ask anyone to pay 25¢."

When Buckley pointed out the two areas for parking by town employees, Monahan replied that these were not intended for all-day parking but for the use of library patrons, visitors to Robbins House, and for Town employees with cars used constantly for professional purposes.

Selectman Parker said he felt the Town had no obligation to provide free parking for a limited number of citizens, although he realized that parking space was at a premium.

"The old municipal lot is a mess," admitted Selectman Saul, but I don't know whether I want to put $17,000 into it. He wondered if certain of the costs couldn't be reduced.

Final result of the discussion by the selectmen was a motion to insert into the warrant an article requesting that this project be done, but withholding costs. Town Engineer Roby said that complete costs could not be figured out in time for one closing of the warrant next week.
